Looking in spite of our spirit's sin sears.

Down on us tenderly, rearning to love us:
This is the sons in their work-worship sung.

Down through the world-jeweled universe rung:
"Onward forever, forevernore on ward."

And ever they open their loving eyes sunward.

Onward !" shouts earth, with her myriad voice Of music, are answering the song of the seven, as like a wing'd child of God's love she rejoices. Swinging hereensor of glory in heaven. And lo it is writ by the finger of God. In such am and flowers on the living green sod: "Onward forever, forevermore onward."

And ever she turneth all trustfully sunward.

To organize and endew such a College, is a work of the highest duty and philanthropy, as it is also of the truest Reforms and, it is therefore, we commend the enterprise to the largest and moet liberal charities of the friends of Progress throughout the country. We urge the claims of the Institution we would create, upon all who have outgrown the old systems of faith and Education; and especially upon all such, who are bleesed with means to do what the heart prompts. Others will aid in building up other institutions; who will aid in building up other institutions; who will aid in building up other institution devoted to Sectarianism; who will contribute to establish one such Institution devoted to Freedom? Who will help found and endow one College in all this broad land, consecrated to Free Thought and Free Speech or all subjects? Shall we not have at least one such, among all these others, where Freedom is crucified? Shall Reformers and Liberalists be less wise or less realous, than Sectarians? Shall they do less to propagate truth than others to propagate error? Who among them that have means, will let slip this opportunity to strike a blow that will tell so powerfully in the right direction, and conduce so eminently to the spread of free principles, and the advancement of all supportunity to the spread of free principles.
